NANA STERLING.

This is a story that no mere man should read, because it has to do with something that is so beautiful, so fascinating, so symmetrical, that a fair visitor Ogdén has the distinction of entertaining.

It is no less a personage than Miss Nana Sterling who arrived in Ogdén today—the famous Forth Worth girl whom connoisseurs of feminine charm have declared to be the only young woman in the world with a perfect "sex ratio." ## YOKEL MAY MEET JACK HARBERTSON

Two wrestling matches that should center the eyes of the sporting world on Ogdén will be staged at the Orpheum theatre sometime next month. If present plans to not miscarry, Jack Harbertson of Ogdén, middleweight champion of the world, will be one of the principals in both matches and his opponents, according to arrangements being made by Manager Joseph Goss of the Orpheum, will be Joe Turner and Mike Yokel, both former world's champions in the same class. In each bout, the championship will be at stake as they will be to a finish at the middleweight weight limit. Yokel is probably the most uncertain quantity in the wrestling game as his record has shown. His ability to "come back" is little questioned as since his defeat by "Pet" Brown, he has been in the east defeating practically all comers. He is now in California, and is somewhat overweight, but he expects to come to Ogdén in plenty of time to train down to the prescribed limit, before the time set for his bout with Harbertson.

Next to Yokel, Joe Turner of Washington, D. C., is considered by Harbertson as probably the strongest opponent he could find and he is desirous of taking on Turner for the "rest bout," feeling that such a battle would put him in proper condition to meet Yokel. His double defeat of Sam Clapham, the light-heavyweight, has given the Ogdén man plenty of self confidence and he won from "Pet" Brown by default.

CLAIMS HE CANNOT GET HIS WAGES

R. J. Dixon, charged with throwing "caustic chemical" in the face of Harry Mori, October 6, 1915, was brought before Judge J. A. Howell today for arraignment, but on the statement of the prisoner that he had money with which to secure the services of an attorney but could not get it from his employer, owing to being in jail, it was ordered that the arraignment be continued until next Monday morning.

Dixon said his employer had refused to pay him his wages since he had been sent to jail. The court directed the officers to aid the man in getting his wages.

Yesterday afternoon, in Judge N. J. Harris' division of the district court, the jury in the case of Frank Russell, by his guardian, J. W. Russell, against R. C. Watkins, rendered a verdict for the plaintiff, fixing the damages at $1000. The suit was for personal injuries in the sum of something over $10,000.

EXAMINER REPORTER ACADEMY RECEPTION BROUGHT BEFORE COMMITTEE TO STUDENTS AND PARENTS

The last witness in the investigations of the police committee was an Examiner reporter who was called before the committee yesterday afternoon, and Chairman J. C. Nye stated that a report will be made tomorrow. The Examiner stated that it had been reported that some of the police records of 1911 were missing and that certain Chinese or Japanese gamblers had been arrested and only a part of their bail money returned. He said that the story brought to him was sufficient in his mind to cause him to make an investigation.

The witness stated that when he first went to the police department to see the records, he made no examination. He met Wardlaw at the time but was not acquainted with him. He made another trip to the police station and looked over the 1911 memorandum slips. He found some of them missing and he concluded that the facts justified a study.

The reporter was closely questioned, but denied that he had misplaced any of the slips and, in explanation of the finding of slips by the committee in the police record book, he said that he remembered that about three slips were in the book when he looked it over.

FOUR YOUNG MEN ON MISSION IN THE EASTERN STATES

Carl Torgeson, son of Gilbert Torgeson, Leonard Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wright; Ray Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Williams of the Third ward, and Wilford Guthrie, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Guthrie of Clearfield, departed last night on Union Pacific train No. 10, for New York City, where they will report to President W. P. Monson for two years of service in the Eastern States mission of the Mormon church.

During the past two weeks, the young men were given farewell parties in their respective ward amusement halls and the three from Ogdén were given a special send-off at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Tracy, Mrs. Sadie West, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Sieman, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wright, and Mrs. Addie Elmer. Aside from the pleasing social features of these affairs, the boys received many substantial proofs of friendship, the list of gifts being much wider than the invitation to the parties referred to. Mr. Guthrie was similarly treated at the homes of friends at Clearfield. At the union depot last night, nearly one hundred friends and relatives of the missionaries, a number of people also coming to Ogdén from Clearfield, gathered to bid them Godspeed and when the final departure was made, the young men carried with them the best wishes of friends, together with greetings from Ogdén to other local boys who are now in the Eastern States mission.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE POLICE COURT

Mike Percell, whose case was taken under advisement yesterday, was given a five-day jail sentence by Judge Reeder this morning. He was drunk and abusing pedestrians on lower Twenty-fifth street when arrested. Ed Newcomb and Joe Bush, plain drunks, were given suspended sentences and John Smith had his case taken under advisement. Smith, according to Patrolman Blackburn, was hiding under a rear stairway of the National and acting in a suspicious manner when taken into custody. The time was 2:10 a. m. yesterday and the arrest was made by Patrolman Wooten.

Pat McCarty pleaded not guilty to a charge of petit larceny and had his trial set for tomorrow morning. He was arrested yesterday at Wall avenue and Twenty-fifth street and is alleged to have stolen a valise from the store of Max Ollich.

COW AND CALF HAVE DISTURBED THEIR SLEEP

Property owners complained to the city board of commissioners this morning that some one in the vicinity of 449 Twenty-sixth street is the possessor of a bellowing and mooing cow and calf that make such a noise that their rest is great disturbed and sleepless nights are the consequence. They ask that the commissioners take some steps to abate the nuisance, as the sanitary inspector has said he can do nothing for them. The matter was referred to the superintendent of public affairs and finance, Mayor A. G. Fell.

The petition of J. J. Brummitt and others for watermain extension for fire protection was denied, the mayor explaining that it is too late in the season to make the improvement. The petition of property owners for an easement on West Twenty-fourth street was referred to the superintendent of streets.

The petition of Manager P. D. Kilne, of the Ogdén-Logan & Idaho Railway company, to be given the privilege of building spur tracks from Seventeenth street to the Fair Grounds was granted.

The official returns of the primary election of October 19 were presented by City Recorder Mrs. Florence O. Stanford and approved.

Superintendent Horace S. Cummings, of the general church board of education of the Mormon church, was a visitor today at the Weber academy. He made an inspection of the school, visiting all of the departments, and expressed himself as highly pleased with the evidences of the good running condition of the entire institution. He was especially delighted, he said, with the large enrollment and with the work being done in the new departments of the academy curriculum and through the different student activities. The "Public Service Association" and the "Home Economics Club," he thought would be productive of much benefit to its members and to the community.

Tomorrow morning at the academy, the dramatic arts and music departments will occupy the time at the regular assembly with the presentation of the first of a series of semi-monthly programs, arranged as entertainment for the student body and patrons of the school aimed to give the students the experience of appearing in public. The program will begin at 9:30 o'clock and will consist of selections by the Nichols' family orchestra, readings by Della Warner and Bertha Wheelwright, a piano duet by Amy Shupe and Gladys Peterson and a selection by the Weber academy double quartette.

The first event of the academy 1915-16 social season will occur tomorrow night, the occasion being the annual faculty reception to the students, their parents and the alumni. The program will consist mainly of dancing in the academy ballroom and the party will begin at 8 o'clock.

Principal Barker announced the event early in the week and the students are anticipating it with much pleasure.

WORLD'S MARKETS

New York, Oct. 21.—Bethlehem Steel continued its record breaking rise today, early sales being made at 550, an overnight gain of 21 points and an advance of almost 200 points since the beginning of the month. General Motors rose six to 350, later going to 363 and Studebaker at 183 showed a gain of seven points. Other specialties, including American Locomotive, Baldwin Locomotive, Allis Chalmers common and preferred and American Woolen were higher by a point or more. Inspiration was again the feature of the copper group while United States Steel fluctuated narrowly while rails continued dull and narrow.

Before the end of the first twenty minutes Bethlehem Steel had extended its rise without interruption to 599 7/8.

A year ago when the stock exchange was closed because of the war, Bethlehem Steel was being unofficially quoted at between 25 and 30.

Chicago Grain

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Favorably weather and big receipts at northwestern terminals more than offset the wheat market today the effect of higher prices at Liverpool. Commission houses especially were free sellers. The buying was mainly on resting orders. After opening 1-8@1-4 to 5-8 @3-4c lower, with December at $1.04 1-4 to $1.04 5-8, and May at $1.05 1-4, the market here underwent a further sag, but then made a good rally.

Corn, like wheat, was bearishly affected by the fine weather. There was persisted selling led by large brokerage houses. Opening prices, which ranged from a shade to 1-4c lower, were followed by moderate additional losses before any recovery set in.

Oats, although firm at the start, eased off with other grain. Trade was small. Demoralization in the hog market brought about much stop loss selling of provisions. Support from packers finally checked the decline. The wheat close was heavy 1-3@1-1 1-2 to 1-5-8@1-3-4c net lower, with December at $1.03 1-2 and May at $1.04 1-4.

The corn close was unsettled, varying from 3-8@1-2c off to 1-4c up, compared with yesterday's finish.

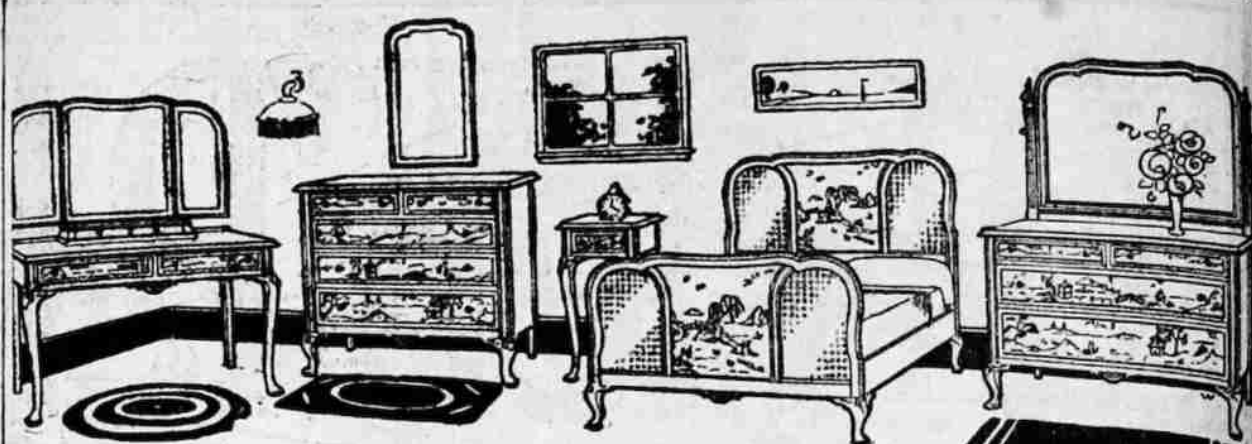

Cash Sales.
